Liſbon, October 16. N. S. This Court having received confirmed Advice of the Reduction of Barcelona, all the Officers are ordered to repair to their Poſts on the Frontiers, and other Precautions are uſed for preventing any Surprize. This is judged the more neceſſary, becauſe 'tis adviſed, that good part of the Spaniſh Troops which have ſerved in Catalonia are ordered to march to Eſtremadura, and becauſe the Peace between this Crown and Spain meets ſtill with Difficulties that obſtruct its Concluſion. In the mean while this Court reckons the Friendſhip of the King of Great Britain to be no ſmall part of their Security; and is beſides aſſured by the French Ambaſſador, that the King his Maſter has ſent Order to the Marquis de Chateauneuf his Miniſter at the Hague, to preſs the adjuſting of Affairs between Spain and Portugal. The ſaid French Ambaſſador here has demanded, that a Conſul of his Nation might be allowed to ſettle and reſide in Braſil, but this Court have abſolutely refuſed it; however, this Demand has occaſioned no little Alarm here. We have divers Letters from Cadiz which relate, that an Order was come thither from the Court of Madrid, for all Ships to go in for the future behind the Puntals, to deliver or receive their Lading; and that the Reaſon given for this new Order, is, to prevent Frauds: But that the Foreign Merchants there are very uneaſie about it. The Tribunal of the Inquiſition having paſſed Sentence on a Perſon of great Wealth accuſed of Apoſtatizing to Judaiſm, delivered him over Yeſterday to the Secular Arm, and he was firſt ſtrangled, and then burnt.

Rome, October 16. N. S. The Pope having reſolved to go for Change of Air to Caſtel Gandolfo, and fixed the 7th Inſtant for his Departure, went that Morning to the Church of St. Clement, where he ſaid Maſs, and put into the Hands of Cardinal Ferrari a Note for 3000 Crowns to be laid out in the Repairs of that Church, in which ſeveral valuable Monuments of Antiquity are preſerved. From thence the Pope went to the Church of St. John Latran, to perform his Devotions, and there found the Cardinals aſſembled to wiſh him a good Journey. Then he ſet forward, in a Litter, being attended by the Cuiraſſiers and Light Horſe to the City Gate, where he diſmiſſed them. He proceeded to le Fratecchie, a Place belonging to the Conſtable Colonna, who cauſed his Retinue to be treated with Refreſhments of all ſorts: And thence he continued his Journey in a Coach accompanied by Cardinal Paulucci, Secretary of State, and Don Aleſſandro Albani to officiate as Secretary of the Memorials. Cardinal Albani is left here, to receive what the Foreign Miniſters may have to offer, in caſe of any preſſing Affairs. The Pope, before his Departure, had deſired the Cardinals not to ſend, as they uſed formerly, their Maſters of the Chamber to enquire of his Health: But this did not hinder them from ſending the next Morning. The Envoy of Genoa, who had a long time been treating with this Court, for accommodating ſome Diſputes between the Apoſtolical See and that Republick, touching the Eccleſiaſtical Immunities, is gone without having been able to bring that Negotiation to a Concluſion: But before his Departure he cauſed a Memorial to be diſperſed, for juſtifying his own Conduct, and that of his Principals.

Genoa, Nov. 6. N. S. On the 27th paſt his Britannick Majeſty's Ship Ruby, Captain Paddon Commander, ſailed from hence for Naples, and with three other Men of War, which that Captain is ordered to take under his Command, he is to carry Proviſions to Port Mahon, where Admiral Wiſhart waits to be joined by all the Ships of his Squadron. The Fubbs Yacht came into this Port ſome Days ago. On the 3d Inſtant the Britiſh Ships of War, Rumney, Captain Scot Commander, and Kinſale, Captain Fuzer Commander, ſailed for Port-Mahon.

Barcelona, Oct. 26. N. S. Prince Tſerclaes de Tilly being appointed Captain-general of this Province, is expected here to Morrow. The Diſarming of the People in this Town, and throughout Catalonia, goes on without Oppoſition, yet it cannot be doubted that a great many Arms will be hid, in the Mountains eſpecially, and it will require ſome Time and Application to put this Country on ſuch a Foot of Government as is propoſed; the 30 Battalions of French which are to ſtay in the Service of his Catholick Majeſty, will be of great Aſſiſtance to the Caſtilians for that purpoſe. Purſuant to an Order from Court, all the Monks and Friars who are Natives of Catalonia are baniſhed from hence, and their room will be ſupplied by Caſtilians, which is reckoned one of the ſureſt means of working on the Minds of the People and holding them in Subjection, the Caſtilian Eccleſiaſticks being intirely devoted to the Court Intereſt. This Method has been tried with Succeſs in the Kingdom of Valencia, which has been kept in perfect Subminſſion miſſion from the time the Monks born in that Country were expelled, and Caſtilians ſent into it. The 106 pieces of Cannon, which the French left when they retired from before this Place in 1706, were all caſt anew for the laſt Siege, and the Device put upon the new ones was the Sun in Eclipſe: We found here in all 183 Braſs Cannon, and 30 Mortars. The French Battalions which are recalled home, have been ſome days on their March. There are 200 wounded Monks in the Hoſpitals, when they are cured they will be imbarked and ſent after the reſt to Italy, for the moſt Chriſtian King has ſtrictly forbid their being received or harboured in France. M. d' Adancourt, whom the Marſhal Duke of Berwick had ſent to Majorca to diſpoſe the Inhabitants to ſubmit, came back hither the 24th, and to Day he ſet out for Madrid to make Report of his Negociation to the King, and of the Terms which the Majorcans ask for themſelves; in the mean while another Officer is ſent to that Iſland, to keep the Negociation open till M. d' Adancourt returns with the King's final Inſtructions. 'Tis obſerved, that it has been judged proper to employ French Officers to treat with the Majorcans, becauſe thoſe Iſlanders are thought to have Diſtruſt of the Caſtilians; the ſame Reaſon is given for Prince Tſerclaes de Tilly's being made Governor of this Province.

Madrid, Octob. 29 N. S. Yeſterday the Marſhal Duke of Berwick arrived here, and immediately waited on the King, who received him with the Demonſtrations of Eſteem which he has deſerved by his important Services to the Crown, particularly in reducing Barcelona. The Chevalier d'Aſfelt commands the French Troops in Catalonia, in the Abſence of the Marſhal Berwick. The new Officers, as well of the Civil as of the Military Eſtabliſhment in Catalonia, have begun to exerciſe their reſpective Employments. The Troops are diſtributed into Winter Quarters, except thoſe which form the Garriſons of Barcelona, and of other Places of Strength. The 26th arrived an Expreſs who left the Queen at Antibes on her way to Spain; and according to the Regulation of her Journies, and of the Days ſhe propoſes to Travel in, ſhe is not expected here before the 10th of December.

Petersbourg, Oct. 17. O. S. The 12th Inſtant the Czar ſet out from hence by Water for Peterſhoff, which is a Seat his Majeſty cauſed to be built about four Years ago, and called by his own Name; 'tis ſituate about 15 Engliſh Miles down this River towards Cronſlot. 'Tis thought his Majeſty deſigns to continue there till the Arrival of his Admiral with ſome Gallies that are daily expected from the Coaſt of Sweden. A Ship of War, made to carry 64 Guns, built here by a Native of the Czar's Dominions, is ſo near finiſhed, that ſoon after his Majeſty's Return it will be Launched in his Preſence. We have Advice, that M. Schapſiroff who was given for a Hoſtage to the Turks at the time of making the Treaty of Falczin, and was afterwards appointed his Majeſty's Ambaſſador and Plenipotentiary at the Port, having happily put an End to all Differences between the Ottoman Court and this, and entirely ſettled the Limits and Frontiers of both States, ſet out from Conſtantinople ſome time ago, and may be expected here before the End of this Month.

Vienna, Nov. 3. N. S. The Swediſh Reſident here has received a Letter from the King his Maſter, dated the 15th of laſt Month, in which his Majeſty writes, That he ſhould ſtop in Wallachia till about the 8th or 10th Inſtant; and Orders him to diſcourage all Perſons whatſoever from coming to meet him, being reſolved not to hear of Buſineſs or receive any Viſits while he is upon his Journey. Mr. Mottray, a Gentleman belonging to the Engliſh Factory at Conſtantinople, who has tranſacted Affairs with his Swediſh Majeſty, and came with him from Demotica, left him on the Road, and is come hither: He reports, That he had ſome Reaſon to believe, that the King will drop his Company of a ſudden, and purſue his Journey incognito; ſo that perhaps we may hear of his being arrived in Pomerania, before we ſhall know which way he paſſed.

Ratisbon, Nov. 12. N. S. Letters from Vienna of the 3d Inſtant adviſe, that M. Fabricius, who was come thither from the King of Sweden, with Inſtructions to procure Aſſurances from the Imperial Court, that no Propoſitions ſhould be made to his Swediſh Majeſty in his Paſſage, had received a Satisfactory Promiſe from that Court, and on the 31ſt paſt diſpatched a Courier with it to the King. And from Buchorreſt in Wallachia we have Advices of the 21ſt of laſt Month, which ſay that the King of Sweden was then at Piteſti, a Country Seat at a few Hours diſtance from that Place; where his Majeſty waited for his Forces under General Sparre from Bender, and for the return of an Expreſs from Vienna.

Hambourg, Nov. 8. N. S. Letters from Copenhagen relate, that three Deputies from the Dutchy of Bremen were arrived there, to repreſent to the King, that the Subjects of that Dutchy were no longer in a condition to furniſh the Contributions at which they were taxed; and that thoſe Deputies were likewiſe to make Complaints againſt the Daniſh Regency, and eſpecially againſt ſome particular Officers, Civil and Military, whom the Court employs in that Dutchy. The Emperor, in the Letter he lately wrote to his Daniſh Majeſty in favour of the Duke of Holſtein, interpoſed likewiſe in behalf of the Town of Bremen, on account of a Village which that Town held in its Dependence, while it was under the Swedes, and which the Danes ſince it came under their Government have alienated. In the ſame Letter his Imperial Majeſty was urgent with the Daniſh Court to forbear Quartering Troops in the Baillages belonging to the City of Lubeck: The Daniſh Generals in Holſtein had held divers Conferences on the Meaſures to be taken, upon occaſion of the expected March of the Heſſians to Pomerania, and the Reſult was, that a certain number of Forces ſhould be poſted behind the Stekenitz and the Trave, and that 12 Regiments ſhould be lodged in the Baillages belonging to Lubeck; but the King, at the Emperor's deſire, has countermanded that laſt Diſpoſition.

Hambourg, Novemb. 13. N. S. General Lieben is arrived at Caſſet, having parted from his Maſter the King of Sweden ſince he ſet out from Demotica: 'Tis reported this Officer has brought his Majeſty's Conſent to the Marriage of the Princeſs Royal of Sweden with the Hereditary Prince of Heſſe-Caſſel. The Counts Horn and Meyerfeld with M. Lilienſtedt, are nominated by the Nobility of Pomerania, to congratulate his ſaid Majeſty when he ſhall arrive in that Country. The Duke of Mecklenbourg having been informed, that the King of Sweden would not have Interviews with any foreign Prince, or admit any foreign Miniſter into his Preſence while he is upon his Journey, is returned to his Dominions: Count Welling had a Conference with his Highneſs in the Way to Guſtrow, by which Place that Count paſſed the 8th, and arrived at Stralſund the 11th: The Duke of Mecklenbourg gave him a Guard of 25 Dragoons through his Territories. The Conferences continue at Brunſwick, tho' little Advance is yet made in them towards pacifying the Troubles in the North. The Czar has newly aſſured the King of Denmark by a Letter, that he will firmly adhere to the Alliance he is in with his Majeſty and the King of Poland. Letters from Copenhagen of the 10th adviſe, that on the 5th the Britiſh Miniſter there delivered to their Daniſh Majeſty Letters from the King his Maſter, notifying his Arrival in England. Baron Rantzau whom the King of Denmark had appointed Envoy extraordinary to the Czar, had declined accepting that Commiſſion; whereupon Orders were ſent to M. Weſtphal, who is that King's Miniſter at Berlin, to prepare to go to the Czar. The Daniſh Court expecting that the King of Sweden will in a little Time form a Camp in Mecklenbourg, has ſent Orders to the Generals in Holſtein to get ready as large Magazines as they poſſibly can, and to make the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for oppoſing any Enterprizes of the Swedes. The Regiment of Horſe-Guards at Copenhagen was ordered to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march for Holſtein; and

'tis

'tis not doubted the King of Denmark will haſten thither in Perſon, as ſoon as the King of Sweden's Arrival at Caſſel, or in Pomerania, is known. The Expectation of ſome Attempts on the Part of the Swedes increaſing, the Daniſh Generals have judged it abſolutely neceſſary to purſue their firſt Plan of poſting a Body of Troops on the Territories of the City of Lubeck, near the Rivers Trave and Stekenitz: And theſe Troops have not refrained from levying in the Villages beloning to that City Contributions of Forrage, Wood, Carriages, and other Neceſſaries, Paris, Nov. 17. N. S. On the 15th Te Deum was ſung in the Cathedral Church of this City, for the Concluſion of the General Peace with the Emperor and the Princes and States of the Empire, which is ratified; and at Night a Firework was played off before the Town-Houſe, and another before the Houſe of M. Deſmaretz on the Ramparts. M. Amelot, who is to go to Rome with a Commiſſion from the King, has been very ill, but will ſet out as ſoon as he is perfectly recovered. The Queen of Spain having left Nice the 20th of laſt Month, paſſed through Antibes, Frejus, Brignoles, and Auriot, and arrived at Marſeilles in 8 Days: She ſtopped there 3 Days, and in 3 more went by Aix, Lambeſc, and Saint Remy to Arles, where ſhe reſted 2 Days, and the 5th Inſtant ſhe paſſed the Rhoſne, and entred Languedoc.

Hague, Nov. 16. N. S. The 14th Inſtant the Earl of Strafford went to Rotterdam, to accompany his Lady and Siſter, who embarked that Day in the Mary Yacht. That Evening M. Vander Duſſen and the Count de Rechteren two of the Deputies of the States General for regulating the Barrier, arrived here from Antwerp, to make Report to their High Mightineſſes of their Negociations, and to receive new Inſtructions on that Subject. General Cadogan is likewiſe expected here in a Day or two. Baron Heems, the Emperor's Miniſter, has demanded, that the States General do in the Interim, till the Barrier ſhall be regulated, admit his Imperial Majeſty's Troops into the Towns and Provinces of Limbourg and Luxembourg, as likewiſe into Huy and the Cittadel of Liege, urging that it is impoſſible for them to ſubſiſt longer in their preſent Quarters at Aix, Cologne and Niewit. Yeſterday the Marquis de Chateauneuf, the French Ambaſſador, was in Conference with the Earl of Strafford; as was likewiſe the Duke d'Oſſuna Plenipotentiary of Spain. This Day the Nobles of Holland have added four new Members to their College, viz. M. Waſſenaer, M. Dorp, M. Boetſhar and M. Schagen.

Antwerp Nov. 17. N. S. Mr. Cadagon the Britiſh Plenipotentiary at the Conferences in this Place, having finiſhed the Affairs for which he with Count Koningſeck and two of the Deputies of the States went lately to Bruſſels, returned hither Yeſterday: They were this Morning in Conference together, and Mr. Cadagon intends to ſet out from hence to Morrow for the Hague.

Hague, Nov. 20. N. S. On the 17th Inſtant the States of the Province of Holland and Weſtfriſeland ſeparated for a Fortnight, without having come to any Reſolution about the Nomination of Ambaſſadors from this Republick to the Court of Great Britain. The Duke d'Oſſuna has delivered to the States-General a Letter from the King of Spain, notifying his Marriage with the Princeſs of Parma; upon which he has received their High Mightineſſes Compliments by the Preſident of their Aſſembly. Laſt Night General Cadogan came hither, and was this Afternoon in Conference with the Earl of Strafford. M. vander Duſſen and Count Rechteren continue ſtill here, and are daily in Conference with the States their Principals, concerning the Barrier: 'Tis ſaid they deſign to go back to Antwerp with Mr. Cadogan in 8 or 10 Days, by which time 'tis ſuppoſed that Count Koningſeck may receive freſh Inſtructions from Vienna, in order to put a ſpeedy end to the Affair of the Barrier.
